

UNION CARPENTERS ARE ON STRIKE

They Want a Nine-Hour Day on Same Pay as Heretofore.

THEY ARE PAID POOR WAGES

They Claim, in Comparison to Other Points, and Are Determined to Gain Their Point or Seek Occupation in Other Cities.

According to promise, the carpenters and joiners of this city have gone out on a strike.

The mechanics in this line warned their employers long ago that they would go on strike August 1, if the work hours were not reduced from ten to nine at the same pay. The employers paid no heed to this warning, with the result that a general strike among the union carpenters went into effect on the morning of the 1st.

The carpenters claim that they are the poorest paid of any in the State, considering the time they are required to work, and are determined to put in fewer hours by one on the same salaries they have been drawing.

A good carpenter, it is said, is paid from $1.75 to $2 a day here, for ten hours' work, when he should receive, according to the scale elsewhere, from $2 to $2.50 for the same service. The carpenters say they are tired of this discrimination, and will get the salary they are worth or hunt some other locality.

This does not apply only to contractors, but to all who are employing carpenters in the city. Many houses are being erected on what is known as day labor, the owners of the building employing carpenters on the work.
These carpenters also went out on a strike, and say they will not return to work until the concession of nine hours is granted.

Two or three contractors in the city are having no trouble as they voluntarily reduced the time to nine hours several weeks ago. The men employed by these contractors are working right along, and no trouble is anticipated in this direction.

The strike coming just at a time when building is brisk in Gainesville, may work a hardship on contractors if the matter is not settled.

A ROUND ROBIN.

Business Men Demand Restoration of 35,000 Votes.

The Sun has received a communication from twelve of the business men interested in the merchants' library contest in which they "request, and demand, that the 35,000 votes cast for the Odd Fellows' Home during the week ending, July 22d, 1905, (on the sale of real estate) and which were eliminated (by instruction of the party who contracted with the merchants) in your issue of July 30th, 1905, be restored in your next issue and continued during the balance of the contest, and we agree to abide by the decision of the committee selected to canvass the votes at close of the contest, as to their legality."

The words in brackets in the above paragraph are ours. This matter has been fully explained in a letter from Mr. A. O. Johnson, who arranged the contest, showing that if the real estate privilege had been purchased the greatest number of votes allowed to be cast on any one real estate deal is 1,000.
He claims, however, that no real estate privilege was purchased, and instructed The Sun to eliminate the votes, which was done, and they will not be restored without instructions to do so from him. We received our original instructions from him, and we do not propose to take instructions from anyone else. The Sun never sought the job it has on its hands in this affair and will gladly surrender it to anyone Mr. Johnson may designate.
We do not care the "snap of a finger" what organization wins the library, but as long as we fill the position assigned us we propose to be guided by Mr. Johnson's instructions.

The twelve protestants can reach A.
O. Johnson (to whom they should have sent their "Round Robin") by addressing him at Hot Springs, Arkansas, care general delivery.

The inventor of the famous "TER-RELL SCRAPE," a man known where-ever plows are sold and used, says:

"I have used MOZLEY'S LEMON ELIXIR for 10 or 12 years in my family for the stomach, liver and kidneys, and find it is the best medicine I have ever used. It is also a sure specific for pain in the back or under the shoulders. I have recommended it in numerous cases to my workmen, when sick and unable to work, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. H. D.

Co., Atlanta."

SENTENCED FOR STEALING.

Two Colored Boys Broke Into Fleming's Store at Archer Tuesday.

Deputy Sheriff F. S. Curl of Archer was in the city Wednesday, having come with Raymond Sortain and Jesse Benbow, two colored boys, who were convicted in Justice Chamblin's court upon a charge of larceny, and were sentenced to three months each in the county prison.

These urchins demonstrated the fact that they were shrewd as far as their rascality was concerned. They entered the store of J. T. Fleming & Son some time late in the afternoon and hid behind some boxes in a rear room, according to their story. When the store was closed, about 7 o'clock, they proceeded to ransack the cash drawer of about $5 in cash, which had been left for change, and filled up a large bag with candy, crackers, etc.

Officer Curl is one of the most efficient in the county, as was proved in this instance. The burglary occurred between 7 and 8:30 o'clock in the evening and by 8 o'clock the following morning Officer Curl had them under arrest.

The defendants weakened as soon as arrested and related the entire story.
The sentence on this account was made as light as Justice Chamblin decided was conservative.

Card of Thanks.

occurred in our gas plant on Monday

The service we consider as being equal in efficiency to that of any of the large city departments, and no doubt better, were they placed in the same position that you are. Again thanking you, we are: Yours sincerely,

A Romantic Marriage.

What might be termed as a rather romantic marriage was "pulled off" in this city Wednesday morning, the contracting parties being W. T. Jordan and Miss Mamie C. Beville, a charming young lady, both of Webster.

The marriage license was secured, and Attorney W. E. Baker, who is also a notary public, was called upon at his office to perform the ceremony, which he did with his usual grace, and with the dignity of a well-fed circuit rider.

Mr. and Mrs. Jordan left the city a happy and contented pair. They are prominent young people of the Webster section, and will no doubt be met by their friends and extended a cordial welcome on their return home.

CHURCH WAS DEMOLISHED.

Frame of Mount Olive Church Completely Wrecked Monday.

As the week draws nearer to a close The Sun hears of other calamities from the effect of the electrical and wind storm of Monday afternoon. The latest report is the complete destruction of the frame work of Mount Olive Church, colored, Springfield, and those who have seen it declare it was wrecked beyond repair.

The church was under course of erection and the loss at this time will be heavy to the little congregation who have worked hard and faithfully to accomplish what had already been done.
It is understood, however, that an effort will be made to rebuild at once.

An Enjoyable Function.

One of the most elaborate affairs ever given in Williston was a Dinner Dance given by Mrs. J. Q. Peacock Monday night, in honor of Miss Ruth Hale and J. E. Thomson, who were married the following morning. The house was beautifully illuminated and decorated.

A turkey and salad course was served at 11 o'clock, followed by fruit punch and ice cream. The elaborate bride's cake was cut at 12 o'clock. Miss Lillian Burke was the very fortunate one to cut the ring. Miss Hale the dime, J.
H. Burke the button and Mr. Williamson the thimble, who with a very pretty speech presented it to the bride-elect.

Dancing and music was enjoyed until a late hour. Seated at the table were
